“ Bro. Bill was and is loved by our family. He was Diane and my first pastor as a married couple and brought us closer to the Lord. Both of our children (Dorena and Donny) were led to Christ and baptized by Bro. Bill. I will never forget the many summer church camps together at Siloam Springs Baptist Encampment. Our time there together made me a better person and a better servant for Christ. His family will always be near and dear to our hearts. We are so sorry for the loss of a dear friend but he is now at rest in the Sweet Beulah Land. We know that we will see Bro. Bill and all his dear family again one day when we all cross over the Jordan and stand in the promised land, praise be to God!

“ An ancient definition of an excellent speaker was "a good man speaking well." Bro. Bill fit that definition well. He practiced what he preached. His actions matched his words. He was an excellent preacher from the pulpit who preached with enthusiasm, conviction, compassion, and clarity. As a pastor, he cared for his flock and his community at large. Even in his last years, he continued his arduous schedule of personal visitation to church members and non-church members alike. He set the gold standard example of a shepherd caring for his flock. Even though Bro. Bill and his family had health problems of their own, Bro. Bill continued to serve as an encourager and mentor to others. Obviously, "he fought a good fight and he kept the faith." Upon his heavenly homecoming, it could be said, "Well done, good and faithful servant...enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Bro. Bill will be missed, but we will cherish our precious memories of him. May God's Word and His Holy Spirit (the "Comforter") provide strength, comfort, and assurance to the family and friends. “ I know there are families all over Arkansas that think of Bro. Bill as their family pastor. My family is no exception. We all loved him as one of our own. From the time he was a "young preacher boy" attending Quachita and practicing his life's calling in rural churches like Lone Star, we always knew Bro. Bill was the one to call when one of us needed prayers, marrying or burying. After we moved to other states he still fed us with his newspaper column in the "Headlight" and remembered us by name when we came home for a family funeral. In the last few years his Facebook page still inspired us and comforted us. I told him once he'd have to live forever, because we couldn't have a Griswood funeral without him. Until we meet again, Bro. Bill, we love you and will miss you. Thank you so much for the life you lived.

“ I have followed Brother Bill on Facebook for years. I will definitely miss his postings. I always hated I lived so far away and was unable to attend his church. We need more special ministers like Bro Bill in our world today. What a blessing it is that he has heard from his Lord-You have done-well thou good and faithful servant. Prayers for his family, friends, and congregation.

“ I will never forget growing up and being at Papa and Mama Francis house in Bigelow. We always went to church and Bro Bill would usually come to the farm for lunch. All the 21 cousins thought he was another uncle. Bro Bill shared the story at each family members funeral he preached. " when I looked out the church window and saw a caravan of cars coming up the road I knew it was the Francis family and it was going to be a good Sunday because the church would be full". I've loved that man since I was a little girl. I am saddened deeply by his death but praise God that he is with Him.

“ I grew up attending FBC every time I visited my Granny and Grandpa, Madine and Herman Moss. I have heard many of Brother Bill's sermons and respected him so much. I will never forget when my Granny was dying, Brother Bill heard how poorly she was doing and came to her bedside straight from preaching his Sunday morning sermon. He told her that she had fought the good fight and it was ok to go on home. Words I could not tell her. She responded to him, something she had not done for 24 hours prior. Granny went home to be with the Lord not 12 hours after Brother Bill's visit. I could never repay Brother Bill for his love for one of his church members, nor the peace he afforded her through his words and prayers. Our family will miss this wonderful man very much.

“ Bro. Bill was such a blessing to me! He was conducting a revival for my husband's church, Brownsville Baptist Church. At the same time, my husband went in for open-heart surgery. Bro. Bill called me when we were driving home after my husband died, and he continued to call me weekly for over a month and asked how I was and prayed with me over the phone. What a blessing he was to me. I thank God for his ministry, love, and consideration.
