“ I am beyond heartbroken over the loss of someone so amazing! I knew from the moment I met Eric that he was someone special, that he was someone worth knowing. I hired Eric on the spot and was so intrigued by his spirit and charisma. I looked forward to every day I was able to work with him, from our love of The Cure, to his desire to always be learning something new. He never stopped amazing me with his desire to grow, learn, and be kind. He had such an amazing way with people and I loved that about him. We had so many amazing conversations and shared so many laughs. He was loved by so many people here in Wisconsin, he was family. I loved watching him find his worth and build his confidence in his own wonderful abilities'. He was had so much to offer this world and will be missed by so many. The world needs to know just how loved he was. Eric, I see you, I appreciate you, and I will never forget you.

“ Eric was one of the best friends I’ve ever had. We bonded over being Pisces with a Baltimore connection and stayed friends throughout all the seasons of life. I’ve never had anyone who genuinely cared for everyone in his life as a friend. He loved his mom, dad, and brother more than anything and frequently spoke about all of them. He got so much joy out of being with animals and working on his garden. He always wanted to be a Chef and would make me the most amazing dishes. I remember when he used to bring me and my son happy meals over a decade ago and all the display toys so we could have the complete collection. Eric would do anything for anyone he loved. He was truly the most pure spirit. You couldn’t be around him and not laugh and smile because he always was. I love you so much Eric and you’ll be in my heart forever. My thoughts and prayers are with Terri, Dale (Rhonda), and Scott at this time.

“ Littlejohn was my guy. He was way to young to leave us and that smile, that voice, and His laugh always created a good time. There was never a dull time with Erick around. He was my homie and a really good friend and I could talk to him about anything. I will definitely miss my guy. Rest in Love and Rest in Peace.

“ Eric was my manager at Logan’s Roadhouse. We always messed around and had corny jokes to tell one another. He talked about his famous fried pickles and his world analogies. he was so smart on an emotional and spiritual level. i know he has accepted his passing and he would only want us to be happy for him.❤️
Sincerely, Emily. Server from Logan’s. He called me ‘Em Em. he always knew how to make my shift better.

“ Eric is loved and missed by all of his friends, coworkers and team members. The world is a less bright place with his loss. He will always be remembered for his kind and sincere spirit, goofy sense of humor and big heart. He will always be in our hearts.
