“ My deepest sympathy to the family and friends ofMs. Evelyn. She will be missed by many of us who saw her at WalMart. She was always kind and considerate to everyone as she checked their purchases, and she always told everyone to have a blessed day. That meant a lot to me.

“ I loved Evelyn. I wasn't in Walmart's for several months because of a fall that put me in the hospital and rehab, so my first time back, she came up behind me in the check-out line and gave me a great big hug. I told her we weren't supposed to hug, to which she said, "I don't care" and proceeded to ask where I had been. I most always waited for her to wait on me unless I was in a big hurry. I wasn't the only one; many others loved her, and it won't be the same. Helen Deaton, Morrilton.
