“ May you be comforted with the memories of the honorable life your dad lived and the showers of love that he gave you throughout your life. His dedication to Jesus and the Church is being celebrated in Heaven today. Rest high on that mountain, Mr. Glen Cromer! Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Renita and Dan.

“ Going to miss this man... He and his wife were my neighbors for my entire life. They watched me get on and off the school bus. Always waving hello and buying me gifts through out the year.

He has been so generous to me and my kids. When they were small he said, “I know your kids have grandfathers but how about I be their Uncle Glen.” They have called him that ever since. He never missed their birthdays, Christmas and he gave them stickers all throughout the year.

He loved our dogs and always bought them treats. We offered to get him his own once and he said no I'll just love yours. He loved his mountain home and was so proud of it.

I find joy knowing he is at peace and reunited with his wife. We will miss Uncle Glen ❤️

This is a box Chequita and Glen got me for Valentines day one year. We had a lot of beagle dogs they loved on so they got it for me when I was a child and it's a treasure. It survived my house fire, which they let me into their home during. Sweet people good memories.
