“ Praying for Jay and Shana and the family. Jamie was a beautiful soul in & out & I will never forget her smile and creative spirit. Rest well, friend.

“ Im pretty sure I am still in shock from the news!!! Jaime has always been the "better" friend. So thoughtful and caring always on the verge of giving what I thought was too much! She loved unabashedly and I always respected that in her. She was a glorious gift giver!! My girls loved her! A simple conversation outside the first dance class at Blackbird turned into a 5 year friendship, birthday parties, and preschool years! There was a lot laughter, deep conversation, I'm sure some tears, but always hope and encouragement!! Knowing her, she would be doubting the legacy that she leaves behind! It is so evident to me!! I see it in Jayden, his wit, charm and fervor for life. I see it in the way that Shana wants to honor and support Jaime even in death!! Oh Jaime, we will miss you, you did leave a mark, and may we all be so brave to love Big as you did!!!

“ I only recently met Jaime a few years ago. In the short time I've known her she has shown me such kindness and generosity. Jaime was just a very thoughtful person. She often carved out time during her day to do small acts of kindness for people. Her sweet spirit will be missed always.

“ Jaime was my first cousin, our entire family had no idea about any of this, until today. We are truly saddened and heart broken of this tragedy.

Today, I found out and cried because a beautiful soul and wonderful mom trying to do great things in life was taken from us all too soon. Jaime, you had a wonderful spirit and a soul like no other, you were a great mom and loved Jayden so much. Our entire family will be praying hard, and always be here for Jayden in your memory. We all loved you dearly. You had just messaged all of us a week ago before this tragedy.

We are trying to still make sense of everything, we are in shock, and we all love you sooooo much. Our entire family has been in the phone all day, trying to figure things out. We will do all we can to figure this out, and we love you. You were very smart, you were always caring for others even when you had a hard day. I just cannot even type anymore as tears roll down my face. I love you, sweet Jaime “ Jaime was my student at UACCM (Petit Jean College, then). She was a beautiful writer with a sensitive soul. Later, we became friends as I watched her blossom into an amazing mother and wife. I can still hear her soft laughter in my mind, and I will miss her sweet smile and deep gaze.

“ I never got to meet you in person, Jaime, but I saw from afar how much you loved Jayden and being his mom. I'm so sorry we've lost your light so soon. Rest peacefully.
