“ I loved my days of working for John and Glennette, with my brother, Chris. Their home was a sanctuary for me. I loved their home on Lake Overcup and John would buy the prettiest flowers to plant. He knew Glennette enjoyed seeing all the baskets of pretty flowers around their pool in the back. John so enjoyed feeding all of Morrilton in the summers, especially The football team, the Devil Dogs! He loved to fish, feed the birds, dogs and cat and even fish and deer! He loved his kids, grandkids, and family! He will be missed but never forgotten! Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him! My condolences to Glennette and family! Sincerely, Angie Horne

“ My sincere condolences to John's family and friends. John was a friend and mentor to me when we worked at the Corps. He was one of my role models as a kind, caring, and competent leader, and the District's Project Management efforts today thrive on the foundation that John helped build many years ago.

“ Dear Glennette,

Kay and I express our deepest sympathy. Since getting the news, we have been reflecting about the numerous cousin get-togethers that you hosted at your home.

John had a major impact on my life by being my role model when I was deciding what career to pursue. As a high school senior I had no clue what I wanted to do, but when I had to come up with something, I saw John in Civil Engineering, and after consulting with him, said that is what I wanted to do also. I give credit to John, and to you Glennette, for steering me into a very rewarding career.

John was also my quail hunting consultant. While we didn't actually hunt together, we would compare notes about the numbers of coveys, and in later years theories about what was happening to the bird population.

You and the family are in our prayers and thoughts. Henry & Kay

“ Glennette,
I'm saddened to read of Johns passing. We worked together for many years and he was an exceptional engineer and a friend. His love for you and your sons was always evident in the stories he'd share on coffee breaks and at the bowling alley. May you find comfort and peace in your grief and cherish the memories that grow sweeter with each passing day.
Warmest regards,
Cathy Cameron
