

Lila Jean Williams

October 9, 1930 - July 11, 2020

On Saturday, July 11, 2020, Lila Jean Bradley Williams, age 89, of Cypress Valley passed peacefully into the open arms of her Savior and was met at the pearly gates of Heaven by a host of loved ones.

Born October 9, 1930, to William Thomas Bradley and Gladys Gilliam Bradley, Lila Jean was the perfect example of a Christian who lived her life with a servant's heart. Lila held many titles in her life: daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin, friend, wife, sister-in-law, mother-in-law, Mama, and her secret favorite Mamma. The walls of her little home in Cypress Valley are filled with photos of the family she saw as her greatest accomplishment. Lila was a member of Cypress Valley Community Church where she utilized her singing voice.

She was a hard worker. For years during the summers you could find her working her gardens, mowing lawns, and her most important job was mowing and cleaning her final resting place Kilgore Cemetery and the Martinville Cemetery until the past few years. She was also a long-time correspondent for the Petit Jean Country Headlight writing the Cypress Valley News.

“ This world is a better place for having had Aunt Jean (I know she was actually a cousin). Her home and family have made a forever impression on me. The pictures that line her family home are a testimony of her love for her family. God bless you all. I am praying for you all.

“ When I would drive by Mrs. Jean's house and she'd be outside working...always working...sometimes I would stop by and we'd just chat up a storm. She was a precious lady..very sweet. Ill miss our roadside chats.

“ I have so many cherished childhood memories of time spent at her home playing with Sarah. She was the hardest working woman and always had the sweetest and most kind spirit. I know she is walking the streets of gold and waiting to welcome her most beloved family members there to see her and Bud again one sweet day. Praying for all of you during your loss.
