“ Patsy Ruth was my mother's niece, daughter of her brother, Marvin O'Brien. My mother loved her so much. Pat and her two sisters were teenagers when I was born. She came to help mother with me and around the farm house when i was born. I'm sure she changed many of my dirty diapers. I remember, when i was probably about 2 - 3 years old, i would spend the night wit them. The three sisters, Pat, Barb, and Betty would treat me like their little princess. I LOVED going to their house because I got a lot of attention from them and from Uncle Marvin and Aunt Opal. Once I grew up, I was around, and knew Pat more than the other two sisters. Pat was the sweetest, kindest, gentlest person. She was so much like my Uncle Marvin in that way. I have stayed close with her and her daughter, Sheila through the years. We speak often of how happy my mother and her grandfather and my grandparents, Timothy and Sarah O'Brien, would be to know that we are so close. Sheila and I spent Pat's last night together, with her. We stayed awake with her all night. She was so peaceful as she slept. Sheila dozed off around 6:30 a.m., i dozed off around 7:00 a.m. At 7:30, Sheila startled awake and called to me. The angels had swept in and took her home as we dozed. We had stayed awake all night so that this wouldn't happen, but God had other plans. Pat is at rest with her mother and father. I know my mother is so happy to see her again, as is my Papa and Mama O'Brien and other family members. We will miss her so much, but we know she is in paradise with our Lord.
