“ Can't begin to express my appreciation for and admiration of Chef Adam. He rose above and beyond to accommodate numerous dietary restrictions (including my own) as well as the nutritional needs of countless kids and staff members during my precious time at Camp Mitchell — always with compassion and without complaint. He was absolutely instrumental to my success and, quite possibly, the greatest summer of my life. I pray that his family rejoices over his impact and is comforted by these memories.

God Bless,
Brett

“ So there was this tree in Adam's backyard that we loved to climb in. To get to the good part you had to climb a rope to reach the first big limb. It was probably 6 or 7 feet from the ground, but in my minds eye it was a hundred feet tall! Upon descending one afternoon the rope snapped with me attached, resulting in my broken arm. Adam pushed my bike home for me, telling me the whole way, "it's gonna be all right". Later that summer we were having bb gun wars in the woods and Adam never hesitated nailing me in the behind, as I ran away screaming. He knew I had no more bb's. I'm almost sure I heard laughter between shots. So many wonderful memories of my childhood and young adulthood are associated with Adam. I cherish those times. How I miss them so. Shelly, I wish I had the words to express how truly sorry I am for your loss. My thoughts and prayers have been focused on you and the boys since I found out. Margaret, too young for this much loss! I'm so sorry. Brad, your brother never made it a secret how proud he was of you. Your continued success in life will be a testament to that. Adam's enjoyment of life was contagious, when he was around me I sure enjoyed mine.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. God has gained a great angel. I'm at Adam through work. He came into my kitchen one day and said I'm your new rep from smart mouth Pizza. I said you are and laughed. And he said yes I am. Well what are you going to do for me. I said because I'm sure you were told I was a problem. He said yes but everyone says really good things about you. I just laughed and said oh don't story to me. He was super a wonderful man. If I had any problems he was my first phone call. My boss hated that. But if I had a problem I knew he would fix it. Even if he was out of town he tried to help me work through it. I am just heartbroken and I will miss him so much. My heart goes out to his family. But I always got around to letting her know that I had a problem. And that I had already talked to Adam.

“ My heart is grieving with this family! I was blessed to meet Adam when I had his youngest son in preschool! Adam loved making goodies for us teachers! Not just me but all the teachers. My favorite was his chocolate covered strawberries! I have never found any better! Your family is in my prayers! ❤️

“ I am so sorry to hear of Adam’s passing. I first met him when he was bright, funny, handsome 10-year-old; he was a delightful boy who grew up to be a wonderful, accomplished man and a terrific husband and father. I’ve followed his accomplishments for years through reports from his mother, my longtime friend Margaret, and I have always been so proud of him. He was a wonderful person, greatly admired, and he will always be remembered. My deepest sympathy to all of you; I know your hearts are breaking, as is mine.

“ Chef Adam - Thank you for believing in me. There are no words to say how much I appreciated your mentorship. Everything that I learned about being a good supervisor I learned from you. Thank you for the laughs along the way. From the moment you walked through the back door of the kitchen, I knew it was going to be fun playing tricks on the city slicker. After I put the fake spider behind your salt shaker, you met every prank with laughter and retaliation. A friendship was born. I still feel a little guilty for the "hook 'em horns" sign that I put on your truck.....

Thank you for sharing the joy of working with the kids at Camp Mitchell. The job was everything you said it would be and so much more. I loved every minute.

It was a privilege to work with you. Your culinary creations were amazing. You deserved every award that you received and more. It was even better to partake of each and every delightful dish. The southern pecan chicken, scalloped sweet potatoes, chocolate fried pies, white chocolate and raspberry bread pudding, wonderful creme brulee, and my favorite.....hot chocolate for Christmas in July. God must be planning a tremendous feast in heaven if he needed you. Until we meet again at Heaven's table..... I will miss you my friend.

“ Shelly, I am so sorry for your loss. I am heartbroken for you and the family. He was a dear friend of mine and I will miss him. Although we didn't see each other a lot, when we did, we picked up right where we left off. Please let me know if I can help in any way.
