“ I still can't believe she has left us. I truly adored Alice. I was a teenager when she married Eddie and I went to her shower and wedding and thought she was the most beautiful and sweetest person.

Want to share a good memory with Alice.

At aunt Lorene's 90th birthday party I saw mozzarella cheese wrapped in prosciutto and ran to Alice bc I knew someone with an Italian heritage had to have brought it. She said no not me but I'll show you who did and she took me to her son David. I just thought that was so cool.

Rest in peace Alice you will be missed.

“ I started working for Alice when I was only 18 years old. She always treated me well and taught me everything I know about bookkeeping. She was a wonderful boss and always spoiled us with her cooking. I will never forget the homemade bread and hot sauce or homemade pizza at 8:00 am, which she would make in the morning before she came to work. She was a very special lady.

“ I'm sorry for your family's loss. Losing a mother is one of the hardest experiences in life. Alice was always so happy with a big smile on her face. She was comfortable to be around and had much love for everyone in her presence. What a wonderful mother and grandmother you were all blessed with! She was always the first cousin I looked for when I came to Center Ridge. Many prayers for the entire family.

“ Alice and I started our Insurance career about the same time, 50 years ago. She worked for American Underwriters and I worked in a local agency in my hometown. When I started I was only 18 and didn't even know what insurance was, she was a little younger than me. We saw each other at meetings and talked on the phone about every day back in those days. I can still remember the day she called me to tell me she was going to have the triplets. I remember saying to her " I know God knew what he was doing when he gave them to you and not to me". I had just had my son and I knew how much time it took to take care of him, I couldn't imagine 3 babies. I remember going to Wal-Mart and buying 3 little sunsuits just a like to send to her for the girls. After Facebook became a thing we were able to keep up with each other again. I have many fond memories of you, sweet Alice. My love and prayers go to all your family. See Ya later and I will see you again.

“ My deepest condolences for the family. Prayers for comfort and peace for you all ! When I was a teenager, Alice helped me by hiring me to clean her house and babysit her triplets when they were toddlers and preschool age. Now that I'm a mom of just two kids, I realize how valuable that extra help must have been so I'm glad to know I returned her generosity and could help her! She was known for her cooking! She will be missed greatly in the community!

“ My favorite memory of Alice is from when I was in 2nd grade and had just made my First Holy Communion that day. I'm 58 now, but I was probably 9 and Alice was probably 19 at the time. We were at Uncle Ed and Aunt Treasy's house that afternoon and when Alice found out that I had just made my first communion, she looked at me and asked, "What did it taste like!?" and then she died laughing. I can still see the mischievous look on her face when she said it. I'm sure I was feeling all holy and it just blew my mind that she would ask me something like that when I was so holy! I guess that's why I still remember it 50 years later. But that's always been my favorite memory of Alice. It still makes me giggle when I think about it.

I can't imagine how much you all are going to miss her. Please know that we'll be praying for you. Love, Celeste & Ray Bailey
