“ Alline was such an inspiration to each and every one of us. We loved her so very much. She lived life to it's fullest. I know deep down inside that if she had to live life all over again, she wouldn't change a thing. Many heart felt Blessings to Alice Jo, Martha, Ella, Sharon Kay and their families for being there for her, Alline loved you all so very much.

“Mrs. Van Marion was my first grade teacher way back in 1975. Her calmness and kindness helped start her students off in their school experience in a wonderful way. I have always thought of her with great fondness and will continue to do so.

“Nono is my great-great aunt. Throughout my entire life, despite living so far away, she never failed to send cards on every holiday. I felt her love for me and my sister my entire life and am eternally grateful for all of things she has taught me.

Nono, i love you so very much and will keep you with me for the rest of my life. Thank you for all that are.

Love, Your Kate Marie
