“ Andrea it's been three years now since you left us. Some say that time heals everything. I disagree. I miss you As much today as I did yesterday and the day before that. With each sunrise and sunset that comes and goes I have more stories to tell you, more questions to ask you. I just want you to know not a day passes that I don't think of you and miss you. You are my very best friend. That big piece of my heart that went with you that may evening....will stay with you until we meet again and you can give it back to me. I love you A.

Love Always, Missie

“ Andrea was a part of my daughter's life for 35 + years. Even as a child she had a big personality. Always laughing and upbeat. The past year was a struggle for my daughter. Andrea was there for her and provided stability and continuity. I will always love her for the friendship and kindest she showered on my daughter. From this point forward I will look for the biggest star in the calm night sky and know that it is Andrea looking down on us all making sure we're getting things right. God does so often take his sweetest angels home first.

“ Bobby and Roxanne, I am so deeply sadden by the loss of Andera. I remember when y'all lived across the from us she was the prettiest little girl. I forgot she and I had the same birthday as mine. I have never lost a child and I know it has to be the hardest thing you will ever face. The next hardest will be when you loose your spouse. I will never get over losing Lanny. He was my life for 52 years. I am very much in prayer for all the family. However, I am sure that she and Lanny had a happy reunion when she entered Heaven's gates'
