

Anna Louise Pugh

November 18, 1930 - June 3, 2026

Anna Louise Pugh, age 95, of Bigelow, Arkansas, formerly of Houston, Texas, passed away on Wednesday, June 3, 2026. She was born November 18, 1930, in Indiana, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mary Shaw. She was a God-loving lady. Anna lived for the Lord and her family. She touched many lives while working with Lakewood for 50-plus years and being a part of the church since it was established in 1959 in an old feed store. She was well known for her Christmas treats and a dedicated Astros fan. She spent hours reading her Bible, loving on her Pomeranian named FeFe, and spending time with family. She enjoyed summers with her grandchildren, hanging out by the pool and going to the Dairy Queen.

She is survived by her daughter-in-law, Diana Pugh of Austin, Texas; son-in-law, Vernon Rorick of Bigelow; grandchildren, Tara (Russ) Gosnell of Bigelow, Damien (Melissa) Rorick of Mabelville, Dakota (Destany) Rorick of Bigelow, Devon (Ashley) Rorick of Little Rock, Brandon (Chris) Pugh of Austin, Texas, and Brian Pugh of Austin, Texas; and great-grandchildren, Noah and Spencer Gosnell, Rayne Rorick, Eva Rorick, Roman Pugh, Camilla Huerta-Pugh, Bianca Murberger, and Brannon Murberger. Other than her parents, she was preceded in death by all her siblings and her three children, Byron Pugh, Barry Pugh, and Pamela Rorick.

A celebration of life will be at a later date.
