“ Grandma Green was blessed with a great life. I remember the summer days of my youth, skinning my knee at her and Grandpas big rambling house in Plumerville, and the mulberry tree down by the garden. I can still see her cooking and canning in her kitchen with my mother and aunties, while Uncle Frank and I wolfed down cereal nearby. She wrote a simple, sweet song for her beloved son after he passed away and loved him so dearly. She loved us all, and we loved her too. Goodbye, my grandmother, and thank you.

“ Lavonda, I am so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. I will never forget, you were so sweet to me after my mom's death. You were one of the first people I saw upon my return, you walked right up, and gave me such a big hug. If there is anything I can do for you please let me know. Again, I know this is such a difficult time for you. Please know you are in my prayers. I hope the love and memories you and your mother shared will bring you some closer and comfort.
