“ Betty was a positive, gutsy sister. She started and completed college in her 50s. She made friends easily and treasured each one. Our sister, Yvonne, was closest to her age and, until last Christmas, they had spent every Thanksgiving and Christmas together for over 25 years.

“ Betty was a caring, loving, christian woman. She impacted many lives at the college. A woman who loved her friends and family and didn't expect anything in return. A woman that I was privileged and honored to know. God Bless the family and be with them at the loss of such a humble human being.
