

Betty Fay Zulpo

June 6, 1941 - November 11, 2017

Betty Fay Cotton Zulpo, loving wife and mother, age 76, of Little Italy, went to Heaven on Saturday, November 11, 2017. She was born June 6, 1941 in England, Arkansas, the daughter of the late J.C. Cotton and June Cotton Drennan. Betty had a heart of gold and will be remembered by all who know her.

Survivors include her husband of 19 years: Julio Zulpo; two children: David Neal and Denise Jones both of Meadville, Pennsylvania; three grandchildren: Miles, Travis, Jamie; seven stepchildren; and a host of grandchildren that she loved very much; three brothers; two sisters; friends and family at Souls Anchor Church.

Other than her parents, she was preceded in death by her former husband James Neal and her twin brother Billy Ray Cotton.

Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m. Thursday, November 16, at Souls Anchor Church with Sister Shirley Jean Zulpo officiating. Burial will be at St. Francis Cemetery on Wye Mountain. Rosary will be 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, November 14 at Harris Chapel with visitation following. Pallbearers will be Toby Troutman, Norman Clifton, Bobby Henry, Robert Zulpo, Denny Zulpo, and Billy Zulpo.

“ I didn't get to see Grandma Betty much in the years she was married to Grandpa, but when I did get to see her she was always sweet to me. She sent me home with food when I was in college to help me get through and she seemed more than pleased to receive company, especially if it was a stray grandchild. Such a kind lady. She will be missed.

“ We had our UP's and down's but there was always love, she has been apart of my life for eleven years, but the last couple of years have been the best. She always greeted me with a smile and a kiss.she always wanted to stop at burger king for an ice cream cone,she always sat in the back seat with me while Denny and Julio sat up front we'd talk and make fun of our Zulpo husband's I will truly miss her.
