

Beverly Sue Keen

January 12, 1948 - January 27, 2022

Beverly Sue Keen, age 74, of Dardanelle, Arkansas, passed away Thursday, January 27, 2022. She was born January 12, 1948, the daughter of Blaine Hughes and Gloria Ravae McCombs Green. Beverly loved her family more than anything. She was a very devoted mother and grandmother and gave everything she had to her family. She enjoyed bingo and her friends Swinomish Casino and Woodgate Apartments where she retired in 2010. In 2008 she bought 20 acres in Twisp, Washington with her daughter Carla. After she retired and moved across the mountain to be there with her granddaughter Kelsey and Carla. She fought a hard battle of cancer with many surgeries and trips from rural Washington over mountains to Seattle. In October 2021, she moved to Arkansas to spend her final months with her Cindy, Courtney, and more importantly her great-grandchildren. One of her last wishes was to meet her newest great-grandson Keyshaun. God granted her this wish, and she spent her last evening with her great-grandchildren and “new” great-grandchildren. She rededicated her life to Christ during one of her visits to Tulsa visiting her family at Faith Bible Church.

She is survived by her daughters, Cynthia Underwood and Carla McCarley; granddaughters, Kaylee Ravae Dykes, Courtney Lynn Dykes, and Kelsey Marie Rose Johnson; and great-grandchildren, Kingston James Morris, Kehlanai Joi and Keyshaun Jordon Loftin and Paisleigh Peeples, and Becket Peeples. She is preceded in death by her parents, her son, Billy Wayne Smith, her sister, Gloria Jean Lewis, and her son-in-law, Kevin Wayne Underwood.

A memorial service will be announced at later date. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to: River Valley Batter Women's Shelter at P.O. Box 2066 Russellville, AR 72811.
