July 19, 1933 - November 20, 2023

Billie "Francine" Doughty, age 90, of Houston, Arkansas, passed away, on Monday, November 20, 2023. She was born July 19, 1933, in Adona, Arkansas, the daughter of William Roy and Cassie Reena Brown. She was the widow of William "Bill" Doughty and a member of Temple Missionary Baptist Church. A beautiful love story that started as high school sweethearts, the homecoming queen and the captain of the football team, fell in love and married soon after graduation. A marriage that lasted 64 years until she lost the love of her life in 2016. Being a wife, mother, and "Nannie" to her grandchildren was the greatest joy in her life. She found happiness as a volunteer at Perryville Elementary School. It was her way of making sure her grandchildren were taken care of, but soon discovered she could be Nannie to so many other children.

Survivors include daughters, Judith (Claude) Froggatt; Linda Doughty; and Cindy Langston all of Perryville; grandchildren, Gordon (Angela) Parham; Thomas (Amber) Parham, Amanda (Wili) Lopez; Leigh Ann Marshall; Kimberly (Nick) Blaylock; Jay (Blair) Langston; Jennifer (Cole) Cody. Great-grandchildren, Ashley (Cody) McMillan; Kristina (Calvin) Youngblood; Liam Parham; Audria Parham; Andrea Harp; Blakely Blaylock; Landrey Langston; Nash Langston, and Owen Cody. Great-great grandchild Kate McMillan. She was preceded in death by her husband Bill Doughty; parents William Roy and Cassie Brown; brother Layton Brown; infant brother and sister Kenneth and Kathryn; and son-in-law, Dale Langston.

Funeral services will be at 2:00 p.m., November 22, 2023, at Harris Chapel with Bro. Will Doughty officiating. Burial will be at Ada Valley Cemetery.
