“ Seeing Bob's picture made my eye's well up a little. For a brief moment sadness filled my heart. But, then I thought about what a good boss he was and how kind he and Noma always were. I've carried them in my heart since the day I reluctantly left Baptist Hospital to pursue another job. I could write a lot more about Bob and Noma and also include Debbie and Donnie. Bob was a good boss and a great human being and made everyday a good day. I've never worked for a better person nor been around a better person and the thing's he shared with me helped me until I retired. Thinking back on it, I could go on and on saying what anyone who know's Bob already knew. Bob has left a legacy in his children and I'm sure his grandchildren, that any man would be proud of. I can only imagine how heavy their heart's are losing a fine man like Bob. My heart grieve's with your's. Best Regard's, Phillip Freeman

“ Donnie, So sorry to hear of your dad's passing. I worked with Mr. Turney years ago at Central Baptist hospital. It was always great to have coffee with him in the great cafeteria there. He was a kind and caring man. Encouraging us young folks to do good. Good memories of the good 'ole' days.
