“ Bobbie was a loving mother who cared much for her family and friends. She was a shining testimony of her Savior and Lord Jesus Christ. She was faithful in attending Portland Church as health permitted, and she was willing to help others as she was able. She will be missed greatly. We are thankful that we will see our loved ones again in Christ. Our prayers are with her children. May the God of all comfort give you peace in such a time as this.

*With love in Christ,
Members of Portland Missionary Baptist Church*
