

Bobbie Dean Woodward

August 10, 1931 - September 28, 2017

Bobbie Dean Woodward 86, of Little Rock passed away Thursday, September 28th, 2017. She was born in Wilson, AR on August 10, 1931. She was a devoted wife of 51 years to her husband Joseph Earl Woodward. Her home was the central location for the family's best memories. From Christmas to weekly dinners, her door was always open to family and friends. She loved to spoil her grandchildren on yearly vacations that they always looked forward to. She was a caring woman that always made sure to help with the needs of anyone she knew. She loved to get together with family and friends to play cards and board games; Yazette always being top of the list. Taking her little Chihuahua for walks with her friends and their dogs was always a favorite time for sharing stories about her family. Her life was truly nothing short of miraculous and she will be missed dearly from all that knew her.

In addition to her husband she was preceded in death by one brother and one sister, Bill and Dink. She is survived by three sons and one daughter, William (Debbie) Woodward, Jimmy (Julie) Woodward, Darrel Woodward and Pam Rankins. Also survived by eight grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren, and one brother Bo Orr.

Graveside services will be 11:00 a.m. Monday, October 2, at Wolf Cemetery with Bro. John Chapman officiating.

“ I will embrace the time that I was given to get you know Mrs. Woodward (she always insisted I call her Bobbie). I loved the stories that we shared with each other. Her stories were always about the love for her family. It has been a while since I have seen her. I am saddened to read about her death. To Jimmy Dale and all of the family I send my condolence. With sympathy- Gayle Fisher
