“ Dear Ken, I'm so sorry for your loss. I really liked your dad. When we both worked at Arrow he was just always so kind and always spoke to me and even when I would see him at church and didn't think he rememberd me, but he did. My prayers are with you.

“ Bobby was a wonderful man whom I had the pleasure of living straight across the street from for 11 years. When we moved a few months ago, it was Bobby that I dreaded telling the most because he was such a wonderful neighbor and great friend. He will be deeply missed on this side, but I know that if we hold fast, that we will see Bobby again someday...on the other side of Jordan. May God bless you and keep you.
