“ The time at the “chicken houses”. Gosh... I never imagined you’d find me after losing touch all those years on 07-17-17. I knew when my change was $88.88 at the store the day before, my life was about to change in some drastic way. Boy , did it ever. The next six years we lived and loved enough to make up for the lost years. Two beautiful babies and a miscarriage later, several family deaths we dealt with together, built and watched it burn lost everything, to wiring/hvac/finishing a 3500 sq foot dream home, we did so much. You taught me so much. I’m forever grateful. Thank you for your time and love.

It will never be the same without you. I don’t know how to raise an 8’week old, 3 year old, and 9 year old without you.... Sigh. I guess I have no choice.

“ What do I say to an old friend who was taken far, far too soon. I'm gonna miss ya brother, more than I can put into words. You were the first one to befriend me when I got back to Arkansas after a 12 year hiatus. You were my longest and most lasting friend. I will always miss you, and your absence leaves a wound on my soul. But damn, it was good to know you and the light you brought into my life. You were always good for a laugh, albeit inappropriate laughs most of the time. I will always remember you. Till we see each other on the other side, love ya my dude. Hope you find peace. I hope your family will someday do the same.
