“ It was with great sadness that I heard of C.L.'s passing. I always enjoyed visiting with him when I was able to come to Homecoming or when I saw him at Church. My thoughts and prayers are with Joyce and the children and grand children at this time. May Gods grace be with you all as you go through this loss. C L will never be forgotten because he will live on in his children and grand children.4v8sk

“Joyce, it was very sad to learn of the loss of C. L. I first knew him when we attended the Plumerville School. We had not been in contact after that for many years, so it was a pleasant surprise a few ago to see C.L. At the old fish house. I will always remember our visits concerning the good old Plumerville days. It was an honor to have known C. L., and he will certainly be missed.
