“ One of my fondest childhood memories is seeing that Joe Polk bob truck pull up in front of our store and then watching my dad and Carl working out an order. Then I would go out to the truck with him and stare amazingly into the back of the truck from the back bumper at all the things he had for sale. He was so good and kind to me as a kid and later on when I would see him as an adult, he always had a smile and a great attitude. Great man...
