“ My prayers for comfort at this sad time go out to Mr. Jerry, Sue, Sharon, and David. Also, to Ann's husband, Kent and her son Win. Ann's death was such a shock to me and my siblings. I think of Ann as a pretty little girl who was always following along in her big sister Sue's footsteps.

“ My most distinct memory is shared laughter over stories we shared about our mutual grandson, Jacob Taylor Gates. The story best remembered is when she caught the toddler Jacob tearing some wallpaper and his response was "I throw myself on the mercy of the court."

“ There will be an empty place in the hearts of many whose lives were touched by Ann.

Ann honored all of life by the way she loved those who shared it with her. Ann will be warmly remembered, deeply missed.

My deepest sympathy to the entire family. May God Bless you all during this time of sorrow.

“ Remembering the times we had as family, visiting Arkansas in the summers. Sharing grandparents and aunts and uncles and enjoying cousins. Nothing was better. May God bless our family with wonderful memories that will last forever.

“ You will always be in my heart. As I go forward in my life, I will strive to honor your memory by applying all of the things that you taught me. I could not have asked for a better mother. Until we meet again, I love you Mom. Thank you to everyone who left messages for Mom and the family. It is greatly appreciated.
