“ She was always a class act. An encouragement to her students and a role model. She was only a few years older than me but I always looked up to her. Loved that my daughter got to have her for a teacher.

“ One of the best teachers, ever. I wish I could have seen her after school to let her know how much she effected my life. I try hard to remember all the rules she taught us.

“ My English teacher passed. I saw her in Walmart about a month ago, and she knew me by name after all these years. She was, a big part of my life. I spent 6 years with her. She fed me breakfast every morning my senior year, excused all my tardies, and was surprised when I became an English teacher. Hahaha She knew I worked late and helped me be successful in school. She made a difference in my life.

“ Carol unknowingly taught me one of the GREATEST lessons of my life as a senior. After walking into class finding some guys playing around, she told us we'd have a 100 question test on 100 pages mostly uncovered material the next day. Figured I'd get my grade up if I could pass this... so stayed up ALL night studying after figuring out this could be done, even though others said it was impossible to pass and didn't make an effort. Two questions absolutely didn't know and one wasn't 100% sure of...so I knew I passed. Few days later ask how I did, she said "don't know, I trashed them, didn't think anyone would pass!" I was floored and told her how I'd studied to pass it. Reminded her of that years later when I happened upon her. Think every student should have this lesson once in their life. Learned it doesn't matter what others think can be done as long as you do - it's paid HUGH DIVIDENDS SINCE. For that, I'm extremely grateful to Carol and miss her.

“ Carol and I were Wonderview classmates beginning in second grade until graduation. We then went to Arkansas Tech. We were also together our first year of teaching. My two children benefitted by being two of her many English students at Wonderview. She took a personal interest in her students and prepared them well for life after high school. She was also a wonderful daughter giving her parents the best of care. She will certainly be missed by many in our area. My sympathy to all she leaves to cherish her memory. I have lost a life long friend.

“ As an extraordinary lady in many ways, Carol Wieland left a precious legacy that will be cherished by all those who knew her. An excellent schoolteacher, a dedicated Christian and church member, a kind neighbor to all, a loving protector of her pets, a keen intellectual with a sharp wit, an avid reader, a compassionate friend to those in need, a civic-minded citizen who served her community well--these are just some of the hats she wore in her journey of life. She will be dearly missed, but her influence will continue. May God's Word and His Holy Spirit (the "Comforter") provide strength, comfort, and assurance in this time of sorrow. Billy and Gail Booth

“ Carol was my suite-mate at Arkansas Tech. Living in such close quarters, we really got to know each other. I believe she even fixed my hair for one of my annual pictures. Everything she ever did was perfect, including my hair! She always had perfect hair and nails. I also remember Coraline...you had the biggest collection of nail polish I ever saw!!! One night, Carol came to my room and tried to clear up my confusions about Jesus Christ. She was one of several the Lord sent into my life to speak about the Lord. I have never forgotten that evening. For the last fifty+ years, I have married, raised a family, had grandchildren, led in various capacities in Bible Study Fellowship, invested 28 years serving in STEP, an Inner city ministry, and now with the women's ministry in my church. Carol was one of several godly influences in my life and for that I am eternally grateful.

“ I have so many cherished memories of Ms. Wieland. Almost all of my fond recollections of Wonderview include her. She taught my brothers and I, and would always ask about them by name. She truly cared about all of her students and will be missed by many. I will miss the occasional visit to work or seeing her at Kroger. She always had a hug and smile. Her legacy will live on in the lives she touched.

“ Many years later, after writing an impromptu essay for my college English class, my instructor said, "you must have had a great English teacher in high school, I had to look hard for any errors." I received an A+, Excellent on the paper. That spoke volumes to the type of teacher Ms. Weiland was. She cared about each of her students and she inspired me to strive for excellence in everything I do. She was a beautiful lady outside, from her perfectly coiffed hair, nails and dress to her spirit of commitment and passion for her craft. She left an indelible mark that continues to serve in every facet of my life and for that Ms. Weiland, I thank you! May you rest in the precious arms of our Father.

“ Miss Wieland was a very young teacher when I first landed in her English class. Being young and new to the profession did not impede her teaching at all. She taught this country girl not only the way to speak but also the way to write, which has served me well throughout my life. She always had high expectations for her students and let them know she cared about them. I am saddened that she left this earth so young. Praying for peace and comfort for the family.
