“ I know Ms. Kate is enjoying heaven right now. She truly knew what it meant to Know, Love and Serve God and now to be happy with him in heaven. Hope she is getting to eat Klondike ice cream bars anytime she wants to. Goodbye Ms. Kate until we meet again!

Linda Shoelen - February 02, 2020 at 11:28 AM

What a wonderful tribute. Bet those Klondike bars taste heavenly.

“ I know this is a sad time in your lives and my heart goes out to all of the family. Carolyn was a classmate of mine at Sacred Heart High school for four years and I have many good memories of her. Carolyn always had something funny to say in most situations to make us laugh, there was so much joy in her. Visiting her at Brookridge she was still a happy lady . Rest in peace dear lady. Your classmate,

“ I was privileged to be a teacher of several of Mrs. Gangluff's children. That relationship was very special. She also worked in our cafeteria. Everyday Mrs. Gangluff greeted everyone with her sweet smile and kind words. May God bless all of her family. Ruth Ann Looney

Thanks so much Mrs. Looney. Traveling back to Texas and catching up on tributes written in memory of my mom. I am able to give my daughter and granddaughter sewing/home making tips on occasion that I learned from you. God bless!

Sara Raines - February 02, 2020 at 02:49 PM

Mrs. Looney, thank you for your kind words. Mom sure did love Wonderview School!

“ I wish I could share all my memories of all the joy Carolyn brought to me and my daughter at Brookridge Cove. I could always at some point in my day could count on a full on belly laugh from her. She was our comedian most days.. I cant thank her enough for showing my daughter how to love in a whole different way.. It was my complete honor to call her my friend.. I truly loved her and I can never thank her family for the privilege of allowing me to be one of her care givers.. from the bottom of my heart I loved her!
