

Carolyn D. Leadingham

December 31, 1951 - June 2, 2024

On Sunday, June 2, 2024, Carolyn D. Leadingham, loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away at the age of 72. Carolyn was born on December 31, 1951, in San Bernardino, California. She loved to make crafts such as journals, quilts, and flower arrangements and give them to people. Her favorite hobby was Genealogy. She could be so caring and giving at times. Other times she could be so hard-headed. She loved to gossip and liked to argue a point into the ground. She loved to spend time with her family and friends. Carolyn was quick to find a project and wrangle others into helping her with it. She could be mean, giving, and hostile but she loved her family, the Lord Jesus, and she was real. She will be greatly missed. Rest in Peace, Mom, we love you.

She left behind four children, Sammy Ray and Dawn Burns of Ola, Sherry Jackson and Carleton Warrens of Conway, Michael McKenzie and Ashley Freitag of Russellville, and Sarah McKenzie of West Memphis; two stepsons, David Lee Leadingham of Bigelow and Tony Leadingham of Perryville; nine grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

The graveside service will be 10:00 a.m. Friday, June 7, at Antioch Cemetery with Chaplin Sammy Burns officiating.

“ Oh Momma, I love you and miss you so much!!
She was my best friend. I am so glad I got to spend all this time with you. I am broken but I know I will see you again and we will be whole again until then get your rest. 💔
