

Catherine Huett Bradshaw

March 4, 1944 - May 6, 2020

Catherine Huett Bradshaw, age 76, of Springfield, Arkansas passed away Wednesday, May 06, 2020. She was born March 4, 1944 in Morrilton, a daughter of the late Thomas Amos Huett and the late Maurine Mahan Huett. She was the widow of Farrell Bradshaw and a member of the Rabbit Ridge Church of Christ. She was a loving wife, mother, and “Gaga”. Catherine retired as Conway County Tax Collector in 2012, after serving 16 years. Besides spending time with her family, Catherine loved music, singing, cooking, and caring for her animals.

She is survived by daughter, Renee (Skip) Wooten; grandsons: Josh (Christen) Wooten and Brad (Brandi) Wooten; great-grandchildren: Abigail Wooten, Logan Wooten, Ryan Wooten, and Parker Wooten; and great-great-grandson: Rhett Meuir. She is also survived by in-laws: Betty Huett, Hazel Nowlin, JC and Norma Bradshaw; many nieces and nephews.

Other than her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her brother: James Huett.

The family wishes to thank her faithful caregivers: Erin and Emily Watkins for their true love of “Gaga”.

Private graveside services will be held at Kilgore Cemetery.

“ I was blessed to know and blessed to take care of her the last couple or so months of her life. I grew to love her and her daughter Renee and grandson Brad. She always told her family how good my baths were, it was my pleasure to take care of her. My condolences to them and the rest of the family. I love you Miss Catherine. RIP, you will be greatly missed, Love Naomi

“ Dear family: may the Lord be with you and comfort you in your great loss. Catherine and I went to school together, though we were not in the same class. I always loved to hear her sing and play her guitar. She had a beautiful voice and now she sings with the angels!
