“ As a classmate I remember going to the St. Vincent school with Cil and doing all of those things that kids do in grade school. At Jim and Suzanne's wedding I remember celebrating with our family present as well as Jim's family. It was a joyful occasion and I look at that wedding picture from time to time. In these later years once in awhile we met at the hall and shared memories and how our aging process was going. She spoke proudly of her family and grandchildren and how happy she was. Blessings to all of you, her loved ones and friends and classmates.

“ My thoughts are with the family during this difficult time. I hope that the promise in 1 Thessalonians 4:14 can bring comfort. Knowing that there is a hope for our love ones lost in death can be reassuring.

“ Cil lead a wonderful life and was a St.Vincent fixture for so many years. I will always remember going to Cil and Cleo's after Midnight Mass to celebrate with a huge Christmas breakfast. Memories like that are very special. They are burned into my mind. Her four children are wonderful people that would do anything for anybody.
