“ Chris and Herbie I knew your mom and dad working in the 80s for the mobile home finance company in Conway. Y'all lived in greenbriar and your mom was always fussing at your dad at work for his cussing. Typical parents. Lol. They had good hearts and worked hard. Charlie loved to tell stories and everyone laughed and enjoyed them. Glad you boys are doing well. Those were good times but rest knowing you are so very loved. Y'all were all they talked about at work. God bless them

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your Father, Chris and Herbie. He and my Dad, Nelson Teague, were Friends. I can only imagine the reunion your Dad and Mom are having with my Dad and Mom, and a host of others, right now. I pray that the warm memories of your Parents will soon overwhelm the rawness of your grief. God bless you both, and your Family.

“ Chris and Herbie, so sorry for your loss. Your Mom & Dad were always extra special to me. I'll never forget the opportunities they gave me. And the additional work ethic they helped instill in me. And that sometimes you just have to have an “Animal Cracker” fit.

So sorry to learn that Charles had left us! Herby & Chris, I know you will miss him but remember the good times & sweet memories he left behind. He can't come back but you can go to him & your mom one day knowing they are resting in the arms of Jesus. I will pass the news on to Roy who loves you guys!
Prayers & Blessings, Janis Mack Davidson

“ Chris, Herbie and families, we are so sorry to read of your dad's passing. We have missed having your folks for neighbors, but at the same time, glad they could be near y'all.
Charles always had a smile on his face and friendly conversation.
We know he will be missed.
