“ Charlotte was a kind, accepting, respectful person that came her way. She possessed a quiet yet gentle spirit which allowed others to feel comfortable to be around her. We knew when she was happy and when she was sad but it never made anyone feel indifferent. She just was a very likeable person and she has left a empty chair and space in a lot of peoples hearts. Gone Too Soon but Never Fogotten. Farewell Dear Friend.

“ Oh how I miss our talks. Knowing I'll never hear your short laugh or small giggle. It's in my ear as I long for a visit. We could always find something to giggle about and still be productive. Miss our movie nights and crafts .. love you forever. I keep picture you holding Kyle and being at peace. Love Bonnie

“ Charlotte, the short time I knew you doesn't diminish the special bond we shared. The hours we spent talking, open honest conversations about everything, life in general, our struggles, our joys, a lot of laughing. You will always have a special place in my heart my beautiful friend. Love you and will miss you always. -Linda Fleshman
