“ Cheryl is a blessing to our family, and all of our lives have been greatly enriched by her presence, love, kindness and generosity.

Many friends and family have described Cheryl as beautiful inside and out. When she talked to a friend or family member, she gave that person her undivided attention and made them feel like they were the most important person at that moment.

She was the first to extend a warm greeting, a hug, a laugh, and was the first to reconcile.

A huge void is felt by all of us who knew her because she was close to everyone and shared her love and appreciation for everyone she met. She truly cared about people and wanted the very best for everyone.

Few people in the world exhibit the qualities that came naturally to Cheryl, and we grieve her loss while also looking forward to the day when we're all reunited in Heaven.

Love,

Cousin Melissa
