“ In 1968, I married a young man from Center Ridge and relocated to Morrilton.

While visiting my in-laws in Center Ridge, a person drove by in a "White Ford Bronco", honked and waved to my Father-in-law as we sit on the front porch. My father-in-law stated, that's a "Kraft Man - you need to get to know him" when you start your job at Kraft. He's a good man. That was my first time to hear the name Clell Stobaugh. Oh the good memories we have made of knowing Clell & Nell for 50 years. My father-in-law sure was a good judge of character. We all respected and appreciated Mr. Clell and his family.

May God bless you in the days to come. Love ya'll, Nova Caldwell-Scroggins

“ In the late 60's, I came to Morrilton as a forester with the new paper mill. I was a timber buyer, so i was out and about the County meeting people and trying to buy some timber for the mill.

when I talked to a landowner or maybe someone at a country store, Clell Stobaugh's name would always come up. They would say he was a land man and looked after some timberland for a gas company. He knew ever thing you needed to know about timber. This went on for a while, and I got to wondering who this Clell Stobaugh was. I decided he must be 10 feet tall.

About a month later, I was to meet the state forester from Clinton, and he was bring Clell Stobaugh. They were parked on a gravel road, and when I pulled up behind them, a big man standing about 6' 5" got out on the driver's side. I thought, "HE is 10' tall." A smaller man got out on the passenger's side. I walked up to the big man and said, "You must be Clell Stobaugh." He said, "No, I am Ted Hall ---- he is Clell Stobaugh."

I worked with Clell Stobaugh for many many years ----- and yes, Clell was a man who stood 10' tall in the eyes of his fellow man. I loved him like a brother ---- and I still do.

This is a true story.

“ Clell was one of the nicest men I've ever known. My mother, Billie Jean Stobaugh Wilson, was a cousin of his. I've known him all my life and always had a special place in my heart for him. When I was a little girl Clell was always extra nice to me. He used to stay with my aunt and uncle , Dennis and Lizzie Stobaugh Scroggin, during the week when he worked at the cotton mill. I stayed with them a lot during that time, too. He treated me like I was a little sister. I thought so highly of him all my life. Last saw him was at a family reunion and we were so glad to see each other. I lie in Tennessee and won't be able to come and pay my respects to him but please know i feel like the world has lost an exceptional person but I know heaven is rejoicing.

Prayers for you all, Barbara Wilson Evans
