Gail & Jerry,

I found out late yesterday that you lost your dear dad. I've been praying for your dad along with my sister. I lost my sister last Friday the 25th. Gail, they are both with Jesus and very safe and nothing can harm them ever again. We will see our dear loved ones again because of the love our of Father God who gave us his only begotten son, Jesus Christ.

You and your family are in my prayers and I am here for you Gail if you just need to talk to someone.

God Bless you and your family, and God Bless the Memory of Cloy Ross.

Your sister in Christ,

*Donna Seavers
