

Cole Hill

November 21, 2009

Cole Hill, age 26, born and raised in Morrilton, Arkansas was a proud graduate of Sacred Heart Catholic High School, class of 2001 and a devoted member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church. After graduation, he began his service in the Army National Guard. Shortly after, he was called to duty in Operation Iraqi Freedom in March 2004 where he spent 13 months in Taji, Iraq. Cole spent 26 years touching many lives with his one-of-a-kind personality and his contagious smile. No matter the situation Cole seemed to find a way to inspire joy and happiness in the people around him. Cole, the beloved son of Carl and Janis Hill, brother of Amber and Steven Hoyt, Luke Hill and Holly Woodward, and Maegen Hill will forever be the strongest link of our family chain. A son to two, a brother to five, and a friend to many, he will be remembered by all. He is also survived by his grandparents, Irene and Louis (Jack) Kordsmeier and Vivian and Reverend Leon Hill, many aunts, uncles, and cousins, as well as an infinite number of friends. Pallbearers are Andrew Hartman, Matt Boyer, Cole Harris, Cliff Boyle, Dustin Pierce, Steven Kordsmeier, Jeff Magie, Jared French, and Jonathan Palmer.

“ Carl, Janis, Amber, Luke and Maegan. We are so sorry for the most tragic loss of your precious son and brother. Everyone who knew Cole loved him. Your family has a wonderful family life that few are lucky enough to have and he had the best family ever to love and be loved by. You gave him the best things life can offer, love and faith. This- your great faith, and love for each other is what will help you endure until you reunite in Christ. I love you, and you are all in my constant thoughts and prayers. My heart is with you in prayer.
