

Curtis M. Hervey

November 23, 1933 - June 1, 2010

IN LOVING MEMORY
TO CURTIS

When we walked the Road of Life together,
We had faced many hardship and strife together,
Until the effects of life took our togetherness.

My fishing partner, my buddy, my pal
I have to walk this road without you
Knowing that you will always and forever be with me;

In my mind and in my heart
As I continue to travel down this road of life together.

On June 1, 2010 at approximately 8:00 p.m. Monday, Curtis M. Hervey fell asleep in death. He dedicated his life serving God in the year of 1999. Symbolizing his dedication in water baptism as one of Jehovah's witnesses, which he remained faithful until the end.

The Hervey family would like to give thanks to all who have given them support in the time of their grief. So they express their appreciation by saying (Ecc. 3:1): For everything there is an appointed time, a time for birth, a time to die, a time to heal, a time to weep, a time to laugh and a time to embrace.

This is the time for embracing them all.

For Curtis M. Hervey leaves to mourn, his wife Jessie M. Hervey, his daughter Candyce Hervey, his step-daughter Mary Turner (Decatur, IL); his grandchildren LaWanda, Kalisa and Eric (Decatur, IL); his two brothers, Spencer Hervey (Gary, IN), Thomas Hervey (Memphis, TN) and his 1 sister Dess Haywood (Chicago, IL). Also, a host of many more family and friends.

We Thank You
