“ Daisy Mae and her Aunt Maggie were my neighbors for as long as I lived in Morrilton. I lived on Rock Street and her house faced what was then Oil Mill Street. She was my friend. She used to share the magazines and newspapers that her employers gave her with me because she knew I liked to read. I remember her dog named "Bo" and her chickens that were also named. She was always smiling and friendly and well loved by all who knew her. I'd visit with her in the back yard while she hung out clothese or fed the chickens. I haven't seen her since the lage 1950s but I remember her well. She has a cousin in Kansas City, Missouri who asked about her not long ago. The light of God surrounds her wherever she is - God is - and all is well.

“ *My sisters and I grew up around and with Daisy Mae.I was a Stobaugh by birth and Daisy cleaned across the street at the Darters. We always gave her our pears cause she loved them. She loved us girls too and we sure did love her. She was funny,happy,and full of life. Our childhood memories would not be complete without Daisy Mae. She was as much family to us as our own. “ Daisy Mae was a Morrilton icon. I do believe, at one time, she knew 90% of the people of Morrilton. She always had a sweet smile on her face and found enjoyment in the smile and antics of little children and kitty cats. Daisy Mae was loved by many and will be missed....my family loved her very much.
