“ At our 40th class reunion Dale got up and spoke and was so funny he had us rolling in the floor with laughter. It was a side of Dale that I didn't know existed and I will never forget it.

“ I have known Dale my whole life. He was always so very kind and giving. I loved the years I spent playing piano at Casa Baptist with him leading the signing. When we would go back to visit, he treated my children as part of his family. Always smiling, always kind--that is how I will remember Brother Dale.

“ Thank you for your advice, although under the worst circumstances we got to meet your grandchildren for the first time, Guy and Aurora. They handled themselves with such pride, grace and with the innocents of a child and yet the maturity of an adult. It was inspiring, I could not wait to meet the parents and family. Maria and Anthony your children have made me proud. I am so happy to see more family from Arkansas. Nathan, Tina, and of course Zack I miss you and love all of you so much. I would love to meet all of the families there, I am so sorry we could not be there today. In saying all of that, there is no wonder why he left such an impression on me. He was a laugh a minute and so wise, it definitely rubbed off on his children. I am so proud to know you all. Love you, Jim

“ It was 47 years ago that you became my brother-n-law and I became your's. I don't know when we stopped being brothers-in-law and became friends. I just know that we ended all our conversations with, "Take care, love ya." We shared many conversations, laughs and sorrows. I will always remember our last visit the night before you entered into your eternal rest.
Take care, love ya. Val
