“ We thought of you with love today;
But that is nothing new;
We thought about you yesterday;
And days before that too.

We think of you in silence;
We often speak your name;
But now all we have left are memories;
And your picture in a frame.

Your memory will be our keepsake;
With which we will never part;
And while God has you in his keeping;
We hold you in our hearts.

Many times we've cried;
If love alone could've saved you;
you would have never died.

In life we loved you dearly;
In death we love you still;
In our hearts you hold a place;
That no one could ever fill.

It broke our hearts to loose you;
But you didn'y go alone;
For apart of us went with you;
The day that God took you home.

“ Do not stand at my grave and weep; I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there. I did not die.
