“ I remember David being a very lively and outspoken individual. He was a good friend and was always there to talk to as well as taking care of those that he cared for. I know he loved his parents VERY much. In 1990 and 1991 David and I took first place in state convention for christian schools in table tennis doubles. He taught me how to serve the ball and put a back spin on it so it would come back over the net. David will be truly missed as much as he was loved. My condolences go out to his family and here is wishing you all the love and comfort that can possibly come out of such a tragedy. David will live in our hearts and minds for all times come.

“ Dear Lewis and Alice,It's been a while since I've seen David but I never forgot him. He was a good friend and the type of person that would do anything for you. We had a lot of good times. I remember when we went fishing on the Little Red. I think we stayed under water more than we was able to fish but we still had a good time. I regret not staying in touch David over the years. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and the rest of your family. David will be missed.

“ I lived on Williams Ranch road for 7 years. My aunt lived out there just a few yards away. From time to time she would call on Dave to help her with car trouble, or when her pipes would freeze during the winter or something else. Even if it was just to keep an eye on her place while she was gone Dave was a good friend to her and I will always be grateful for that. I am so sorry to hear that he passed.

“ I got to know David when he was an apprentice electrician and we worked for the same company on many jobs together. He was a very hard worker and always made me laugh which made him fun to work with. David and I became good friends over the years, but we lost touch after changing jobs and time passed. I will always remember David as a kind-hearted person that would go out of his way to help somebody else. I will forever regret not taking the time to stay in touch with David these last few years. My condolences to his parents and family.

“ David and I first met about 15 years ago in highschool he was my boyfriends best friend at the time. We had the best of time he sinon and I, then of course we all went our seperate ways. It wasn't until about two, three months ago that I crossed paths with david again and I was lucky enough to get to go to his house one night then to get him to come over one evening to a friends of mine who lives right around the corner from where he worked. We spent until the wee hours catching up, he surprised me when he told me that he was ready to settle down and have kids and a family and make something more for himself. knowing david it was hard to believe he hadn't already. We talked of so many things it's hard to put all in words, but the one thing that did come up repeatedly in our conversation was how much he loved his mom and dad and yes even though they'd been having a rough spell through the past years his brother lewis. David text me sunday the night before the accident and asked me if I wanted to come by to visit,I was in the bed with a migraine, I asked if he'd take a raincheck and of course he abliged. I tried calling david a couple of times and never got an answer afterward and decided to catch him after work this past tuesday and found out then of what had happened. I was devastated and really dumbfounded that I hadn't been told by one of our many common friends. I am truly saddened that I missed the opportunity to spend one more night with david, but even greater that I wasn't able to join his many family members and friends in celebrating his life. I'll end with, if given an opportunity big or small to be with the ones you love and care for, do whatever you can to make it happen, for my regret is ever troublesome. I send my love and best wishes for the family. I love david and will forever feel grateful for being able to have known and loved him. With my deepest condolences.
sincerely,lifelong friend Jo Jo Philley
