

Deborah Sue Driggers

October 21, 1950 - October 21, 2021

Deborah Sue McHam Driggers, age 70, of Morrilton, Arkansas, passed away Thursday, October 21, 2021. She was born October 21, 1950 in Texas, the daughter of Joe McHam and Gladys Allsup McHam. She was the widow of Wilburn Driggers, Jr. She was a teacher and a member of Downtown Church of Christ.

She is survived by her nieces and nephews, Terry (Elvis) Garren, Lisa (Ray) Mason, Paul McHam, Douglas McHam, Joe Ray (Tammy) McHam, and Debbie Crosby. Other than her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her sister, JoAnn Scroggins; and brothers, Gaither McHam, Douglas McHam, and James McHam.

Private burial will be at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Deborah Sue Driggers

January 30, 2023 at 02:08 AM

“ I have lived next store to Mrs. Driggers for 21 years now. When Mr. Driggers passed that was a sad day for those who knew him. Great man. Now she is healed and with Jesus and her husband now. RIP sweet sweet lady. Praying for the family.

Liz Whiting - October 24, 2021 at 11:54 AM

“ Mrs. Driggers was a wonderful teacher and will have a place in my heart. I will always be her princess, which she has called me ever since I was little!!

Brooklyn Lentz - October 22, 2021 at 10:39 PM

“ Mrs. Driggers was a wonderful teacher and will always have a place in my heart. I will always be her princess as she always called me.

Brooklyn Lentz - October 22, 2021 at 10:35 PM

“ Mrs. Driggers was a wonderful teacher, friend and lady!! She loved my three kids so much and they loved her just as much!! She will always have a special place in our hearts!!

crystal lentz - October 22, 2021 at 10:34 PM

BC

“ Both of my kids had Susie and they both loved her very much. This world needs more great teachers like Susie. We sure did love her. God Bless you all.

Brian Cooper - October 22, 2021 at 12:49 PM

BP

“ Susie was one of the best student teachers I ever had. She was also one of the best friends I have ever had. She had a heart of gold. Her smile would light up any room. Family, she will be missed, but have joy in knowing Susie is with the Lord. God bless you all. Love, Brenda G. Payne

Brenda G. Payne - October 22, 2021 at 10:23 AM

SW

I got to work with Susie when I started as principal at Reynolds in 2005. We had many, many good laughs together and as we went to MES. Lifting you all in prayers during this time.

Sharon Wilson - October 22, 2021 at 12:08 PM

SN

Susie was a great friend. I know you all will miss her. I have missed seeing her the last few years.

Stephanie Nicholson - October 22, 2021 at 01:14 PM