

Deborah Dianne Holland

September 21, 1954 - November 15, 2025

Deborah Dianne Watters Holland, age 71, of Morrilton, Arkansas, passed away on November 15, 2025. She was born September 21, 1954, in Morrilton, Arkansas, the daughter of Alfred Watters and Erma Lee Blacksire. She gave her life fighting against cancer and educating the public about the use of products that could harm their health. Dianne loved music and self-taught the guitar. The first song she played was Old Muddy River. She was the widow of her soulmate and sweetheart, Jimmy Wayne Holland, whom she married on June 4, 1971, for 37 years. Their special song was That's the Way Love Goes. She loved God, her family, and liked sweets.

She is survived by her sons, Doug (Amber) Holland of Morrilton and Shaun (Becky) Holland of Malvern; daughter, Kristen (Julian) Davis of Morrilton; bonus son, Brandon Brown; grandchildren, Haley Paige Holland, Jessica (Conner) Vrooman, Brittany Bryant, Leah Bryant, Abigail (Jon) Gage, Shaun Holland, Jr., Cayden Holland, Ian Holland, Aaron Holland, Austin Holland, Ashton Holland, Shelby Holland, and Payton Holland; great-grandchildren, Eden Holland, Emberlee Holland, Hudson Vrooman, Collins Vrooman, and Oliver Gage; and like brothers to her were uncles, Bob and Les Blackshire.

A Memorial service will be 2:00 p.m., Friday, November 21, at Bethel Missionary Baptist Church with Bro. Dennis McClintic and Bro. Shaun Holland officiating.

“ Dianne was so full of life and energy. She took charge of situations and did what was necessary to get things taken care of. She was so helpful when I was going to college and also my first job after college with the Cancer Society. I will never forget her and I am so terribly sorry for your loss. She will be greatly missed by so many, yet I rejoice that she is reunited with the Father and Jimmy. God bless you all. Brenda Holloway
