“ Jeanie was a cherished family member and friend to us all. Her smile could light up a room and she shared it freely with everyone. She was a huge comfort to so many people facing surgery and a huge help to many surgeons through the years. We will miss knowing that her sweet smile will be waiting for us here on Earth but take comfort in knowing that she will be waiting for us to join her in Paradise. Rest well, sweet Jeanie. We love you and your family.

“ I would sometimes share a short conversation with Miss Jean, as we called her at Seeds of Love, when I would visit my mother there regularly. I liked her own special way of playing Bingo and her pretty smile, my condolences to the family, now that she is at peace.

“ I loved this beautiful lady. She was a faithful customer in my salon for many years. She spoke often of a dream of hers. She always wanted to own a home for the elderly. A place where they would could be loved and respected for the remaining days of there lives. She loved her family. I gave her granddaughter her first hair cut. Till we see each other again. God blessed with your smile and spirit.
