“ My Father's way may twist and turn,My heart may throb and ache,But in my soul I'm glad I know,He maketh no mistake.My cherished plan may go astray,My hopes may fade away,But still I'll trust in my Lord to lead,For He doth know the way.Tho' night be dark and it may seem,That day will never break,I'll pin my faith, my all in Him,He maketh no mistake.There's so much now I cannot see, My eyesight far too dim,But come what may, I'll simply trustAnd leave it all to Him.For by and by the mist will lift,And plain it all He'll make.Through all the way, tho' dark to me,He made not one mistake.God bless you Daniel during this difficult time. Look to God and let him wrap his loving arms around you.-Jerry Smith

“ I have knowm your father for several years.Each time i would seen him he would have a smile on his face and a warm welcome. Dennie and David (my husband) would reminiscence of younger years of sweet race cars and silly thing they would do. I know you and your family are dealing with alot right now but,he is in a better place. One day all the family will be together.. But until then you have all those memories that will keep him near and dear to your heart.God Bless you and your family

“ Daniel,

So sorry that I can not be there with you today to remember and celebrate your dad's life. I appreciated his friendship so much and he will certainly be missed. Of one thing I'm certain that we will see him again one day. Please know that our prayers and thoughts are with you not only today but in the days to come.

“ I am so sorry about Dennie. He and I were friends for many years and shared many sad and happy times - we had many, many talks about life and its problems. He was a good, Christian man, and will be greatly missed. Daniel, you were his pride and joy and are so much like him. Just know I loved him and am praying for all of you and asking God to give you the faith and strength you need in the days ahead. May he rest in peace! Love and Prayers.

“ I was very shocked and sadden to learn today that Dennie had passed away. We did not attend the same school but became friends through our love for fast cars back in 1969. Over the Years we have always kept in contact and visited whenever we could. Daniel, your dad thought the world of you from the day you were born. He will be surely missed but rmember the good times you had with him. I could always pick up the phone and call, and he would answer. I will miss those conversations. Rest In Peace my friend. My prayers are with the family.
