

Diane Williams

June 18, 1944 - December 29, 2012

Diane Williams, age 68, of Morrilton, left her earthly family Saturday, December 29, 2012 for a homecoming with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Meeting her there is her husband Bob Mack Williams, son, Bobby "lil Bob", parents, John and Nelda Williams, grandparents, C.C. and Edna Spence, John and Etta Williams, many family members and friends.

Diane was a homemaker and had the privilege of being a stay at home mom. She was very talented in music and from a very young age used her singing to honor God. She was a member of Lonoke Missionary Baptist Church. She sang with the Golden Girls at her church ministering in various Nursing Homes. She overcame many illnesses and physical pain. Her life was a testimony to all who knew her. Her four grandchildren gave her lots of bragging rights. She enjoyed reading, needlework, collecting pink depression glass and going to deer camp with Bob Mack. Diane was an excellent cook and served many Sunday dinners to preachers, family and friends.

She is survived by her daughters, Michele Williams of Morrilton, Leslie Williams of Greenbrier; grandchildren, Matthew Hight, Mitchell Hight (Jessica) of Charlotte, North Carolina, Alexandra Sharp and Jessica Sharp both of Morrilton; sisters, Johnnie McLester (Ed) of Mooresville, North Carolina, Becky Reynolds (David) of Greenbrier, and Pam Snell (Terry) of Grenada, Mississippi; many nieces, nephews and a host of family and friends, special friends, Geneva Olenger and Susan Duvall.

Funeral services will be 11:00 a.m. Monday, December 31, at Lonoke

Missionary Baptist Church with Bro. Mike Atkinson, Bro. Craig Duncan and Bro. John Burleson officiating. Burial will be at Old Salem Cemetery by Harris Funeral Home of Morrilton. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to Riverview Christian School or Lonoke Golden Girls Fellowship.
