“ Dino (Donald) McGill my younger brother who always made A's in school. The younger brother who got married first! the one who bought his house first! My younger brother who started having children first! The list goes on and one Dino. I love and I know that you knew this without a doubt. The attitude you keep this pass year, with such a grave issue will always amaze me brother. Rest In Peace and we will meet you by the eastern gate!
