

Douglas Christopher Cambiano

May 10, 1959 - December 22, 2024

Douglas Christopher Cambiano, age 65, of Morrilton, Arkansas, passed away Sunday, December 22, 2024. He was born May 10, 1959, in Springfield MO to George Joseph “Joe” Cambiano and June Elizabeth Wright Cambiano. He was preceded in death by his father, Joe Cambiano, nephew Angelo Cambiano, and the love of his life, Ronda Fields. He is survived by his mother, June Cambiano, his four brothers, Mark (Janina), David, Brad, Dan, and his sister, Kathleen (Roy) Garrett. Doug was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Doug was a retired lineman, avid fisherman, teller of tall tales, and gifted cook. Doug was known as “Judge” by his friends. He enjoyed riding his Harley-Davidson motorcycle and could often be found with a book, usually a western or a historical novel, in his hands. Doug enjoyed playing with his great-nieces and nephews (perhaps because he was a big kid at heart) and they loved him.

Funeral mass will be held at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Morrilton, AR on Monday, December 30, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. with Fr. Stephen Hart officiating. Honorary pallbearers will be Adrian Freeman, Anthony Cambiano, and Chris Cambiano. Burial will be at Sacred Heart Catholic Cemetery.

“ I'm very sorry for the loss of Doug, he was always friendly and good to our family and especially to me, he would pull up in my yard and asked how I was doing and how my Mom was doing, he was a very thoughtful man.
