“ To the Family, which all eventually became my family. I've always been greeted with a smile and a hug. And never left without an I love you or I love you, Sis.

My heart is breaking for our Loss. I will miss my lifetime best friend. I can remember the first whistle that came from a truck passing by as I was getting off the bus from school. And eventually getting the opportunity to meet Douglas in person. He won my heart and I've never stopped loving Him. We built a wonderful bond and that special bond was never lost. Although we both eventually moved on from that first love, as best friends we never lost our special bond. I honestly loved him until his death. And will love him until we see each other again.

“ He was always ready to make our lives better while serving together in IRAQ during OIF II. Remember the great pranks we played on other soldiers during weekly mail call. Taught me how to drive the Five ton truck and made me a better soldier. Thank you for the memories.
